

Reading Response Example

How is Odysseus when Hermes reaches the island? How is he feeling?

When Hermes reaches Calypso's island, Odysseus is not in the best shape. He isn't happy with Calypso, so he spends his time "sitting on the shore, wearing himself out with lamentation and tears" (63). Odysseus is grieving everything he lost and just wants to go home.

